cognitivism Reasons (Continuum Ethics):

When we say we 'act for a reason' what do we mean? And what do reasons have to do with being good or bad? Introducing readers to a foundational topic in ethics, Eric Wiland considers the reasons for which we act. You do things for reasons, and reasons in some sense justify what you do. Further, your reasons belong to you, and you know the reasons for which you act in a distinctively first-personal way. The book is about the author, Eric Wiland, who is an Associate Professor of Philosophy at the University of Missouri, St. Louis, USA.
